

Follow a Changing-Room Privacy Routine

Foundational: apply posted rules

Read this fictional pool changing-room notice. A learner may use a support person according to their own needs and choices.

Choose a space	Use an empty changing cubicle.
Before entering	If a door is closed, knock and wait for a reply.
While changing	Close the cubicle door for privacy.
If help is needed	Ask your chosen support person or pool staff.
Phones	No photos or videos in the changing area.

Sample answers below. Accept equivalent wording and supported communication.

1. A cubicle door is closed. What should you do first?

Knock and wait for a reply.

2. What can you do for privacy while changing?

Close the cubicle door.

3. Who could you ask if you need help?

Your chosen support person or pool staff.

4. Can someone take photos in this changing area?

No; the notice says no photos or videos.