Repair a Misunderstood Message - Level 2

Level 2: generate a two-way clarification

Dev messages: Meet me by the bank. River thinks Dev means the riverside, but Dev means the bank building on Oak Street. Either person can ask for clarification; speaking, typing, and AAC are welcome.

Unclear message	Meet me by the bank.
River's question	Do you mean the riverbank or the bank building?
Dev's meaning	The bank building on Oak Street.
Goal	Both people agree on the same meeting place.

Read the information. Write, say, point to, or dictate your answers. A calculator may be used.

1. Which word has two meanings here?

2. Write a clearer message Dev could send.

3. Write a reply River could use to confirm the place.

4. If River is still unsure, what can River request?
